Sir Christopher Summer Camp– Cambridge -2020

Studio Cambridge's Sir Christopher program is based at Ridley Hall and Newnham College. Newnham College is one of the 31 colleges of Cambridge University. Ridley Hall has been a Studio summer camp since 1967 and is affiliated to Cambridge University.

Accommodation is available at Ridley Hall College and Newnham College. During our busiest times, classes may be in the morning or the afternoon at either college.

This is ideal centre for our 16-19-year-old students looking to enjoy a holiday course or serious academic course with a real taste for Cambridge University life.

There is a wide range of nationalities and the ratio of staff to students here is high. The average number of students per class is 13 and the maximum class size is 16.

From June 23rd and closes on August 25th.

Content

Cambridge University Discovery Theme

Living and studying in a Cambridge University college gives you a feel for life as a Cambridge student, but we like to show you more.

The university life, traditions and history feature as the main theme for the camp in 2020. Activities relating to this form part of the camp's English lessons and its activity options.

Lesson topics include a focus on famous Cambridge alumn, it's scientific discoveries and its sporting traditions.

The social activity program choices include "hidden" Cambridge presentations from Cambridge students, university-based science lectures and college guided tours.

Evenings:

Each evening, after dinner students on the Sir Christopher program will have activities organised for them by our Studio staff. These evening activities are not compulsory. Students should be back in the campus by 21.30 and in back in their rooms by 23.00.

All our residences are situated in quiet areas, so students and staff are asked to respect the privacy of our neighbours and avoid excessive noise in the evenings,

Your Free Time

Students on the Sir Christopher camp will have some free time and independence – especially on Thursdays and Sundays during the day. There are always things to do in Cambridge and our Studio staff are on hand to help you make the most of your free time.
